J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College to host “A Raisin in the Sun” play

RICHMOND, Va. (February 16, 2010) – J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College will host the play “A Raisin in the Sun” on February 25 at 7 p.m. in the Massey Library Technology Center’s Lipman Auditorium on the Parham Road Campus.

The play tells the story of a family struggling on Chicago’s South Side in the 1950’s. “A Raisin in the Sun” was written by Lorraine Hansberry who became the first African-American to write a Broadway play.

The free program is open to the public and will be presented by the Drama Ministry of Rising Mount Zion Baptist Church.

Serving over 19,000 students annually, J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College is the youngest and third largest of 23 community colleges in Virginia. The College operates three campuses serving residents in the City of Richmond and the counties of Henrico, Hanover, Goochland, Powhatan and Louisa.
